

| Religion | Economy | Way-of-life |
|--|---|--|
| Greater Diversity: (remnants of Dutch Reformed Church + Lutheran Swedes + Quakers + Catholics + spill over of Anglicans from South and Congregationalists (former Puritans)). | Mixed Economy: Trade, Shipping, Manufacturing, Commerce (Philadelphia & NYC) Commercial Farms – “STAPLE CROPS” (grains, corn, oats) “Breadbasket Colonies” | Diverse population Quakers – “Society of Friends” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Est. fair relations with Native Americans - Opposed slavery - Est. Rep. Assembly New York – very aristocratic (defined social classes, based on wealth & land ownership). |
| Quakers – “Society of Friends.” Promoted religious tolerance to All Christians (& Native Americans) | Some slavery, but mostly Ind. Servitude (More slaves in cities as unskilled laborers) | Everywhere else, relatively socially & economically democratic |
| Larger role of women in colonial economy, but still very restricted | Larger role of women in colonial economy, but still very restricted | “Middle Way” – the Middle Colonies were influenced by components of both the New England colonies and the Southern colonies |